REV. HALL GOES
TO NEW PULPIT
IN ALEXANDRIAFormer Washington Pastor
Begins His Duties
Tomorrow.THE HERALD BUREAU.
A. S. Deshpande.
1215 King Street.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., May 13.—Rev. Percy Foster Hall, of Epiphany Church, Washington, will assume on Sunday his duties as pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church Sunday, in place of Rev. P. P. Phillips, D. D., who retired several months ago after being rector of that church for more than a quarter of a century.

At the morning service holy communion will be administered by Rev. Berryman Green, D. D., dean of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, who will serve in the chancel with Rev. Mr. Hall.

A special musical program will be rendered by the choir under the direction of Sherman B. Fowler.

The eighth congressional district track meet will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the grounds of the Alexandria High School. Five northern Virginia high schools will compete in the contest. They are five schools that will compete and they are Alexandria, Manassas, Leesburg, Middleburg and Warren.

Another large audience tonight witnessed the production of "Springtime" at the opera house for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital.

Last rites for Maj. James A. Long, who died Wednesday, were held this afternoon at his late residence, 525 1/2 Second Street, and services were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church. Burial was in St. Paul's Cemetery.

The city school board will endeavor to have city council erect a new public school board building. The city school board has refused permission to permit Sunday baseball on the high school grounds.

Tags will be sold on the street tomorrow for the benefit of the Sunday School baseball league.

A meeting of the Moose will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at its home, Duke and Royal streets, to arrange for a reception to Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, which will be given shortly.

Citizens Hear Explosion—Yeggmen Not Suspected

SMITHFIELD, W. Va., May 13.—The safe at the postoffice and one at the Baltimore and Ohio station were robbed early Wednesday by yeggmen who secured about $600 in cash, stamps and Liberty bonds. The station was robbed first, but it is said the handouts did not get over $20 here. They used nitroglycerine on the postoffice safe. Scores of residents heard the explosion but did not suspect a robbery.

Yeggs Blow Safe,
Get $6,620 Loot
In Ivy, Va., Store

CHARLOTTESVILLE, May 13.—Yeggmen early this morning at Ivy, this county, cracked the door of the safe at the A. L. Stevens store and made away with a lock-box containing $620 in cash, besides securities totaling $6,000 more. The thieves left no trace except the demolished safe. Entrance to the building was effected by breaking the iron bars on a rear window. Sheriff Thomas early this morning procured bloodhounds, but the trails they followed furnished no clue.

Arlington County

CLARENDON, Va., May 13.—A delegation of citizens headed by Frank Lyon, president of the Chamber of Commerce, conferred with Senator Claude Swanson yesterday concerning better terminal facilities for the electric lines at the Roanoke end of the Key Bridge. A movement is on foot to persuade the Capital Traction Company to cross to the Virginia side, while patrons of the Washington and Old Dominion line want it to run through to Union Station.

Senator Swanson pledged his support to having Arlington County supplied with water from the District of Columbia supply. David J. Howell, county sanitary engineer, stated that the present daily consumption is about 1,500,000 gallons.

Academy Summer Cruise
To Be on Five Battleships

ANNAPOLIS, Md., May 13.—Naval Academy authorities announced today that the midshipmen's summer practice cruise will be on five battleships, instead of four as formerly. Secretary of the Navy Denby having rescinded the order for advanced graduation of the class of 1922 which will now be sent on the cruise.

The additional ship is the Kansas, in command of Rear Admiral Hughes. The Kansas will become the flagship of the cruising squadron, and it is understood Admiral Hughes will remain in command. The other vessels are the Minnesota, Connecticut, Michigan and South Carolina. The cruise will be to European waters and will begin early in June.
